ADMINISTRATION

To members of the Class of 1969:

In spite of the fact that you leave Hempstead High School in a period of social turmoil, the future for young people today is brighter than in any other time in our nation's history. Each day our expanding economy opens up unlimited opportunities for you. Our hope is that you will help in finding solutions to the social problems and take advantage of these economic opportunities. At Hempstead High School you participated in a fine academic program and worked in an integrated social setting that should serve you well in future years.

I would like to extend my sincere wishes for a very bright future.

Arthur Flax

growing . . .

with others . . .

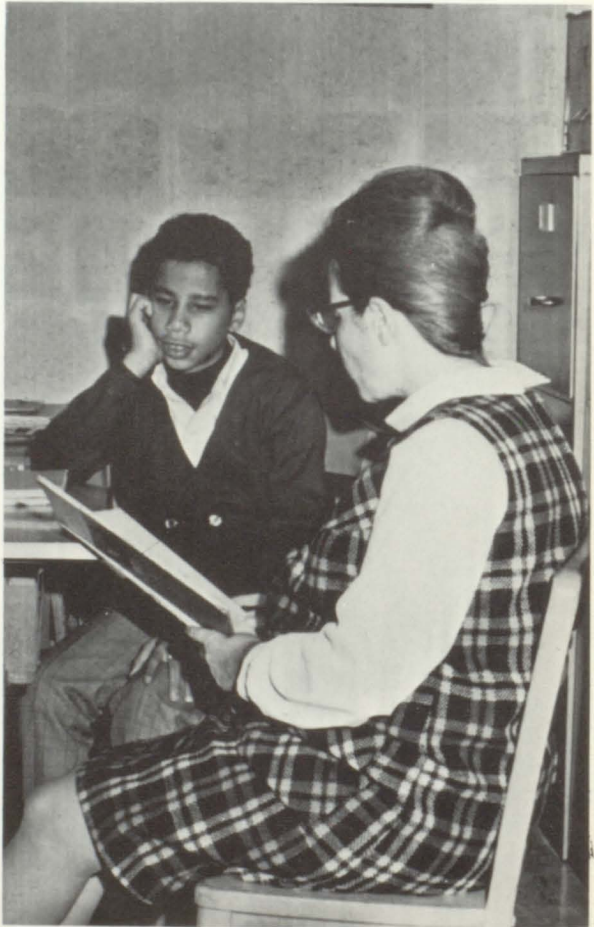

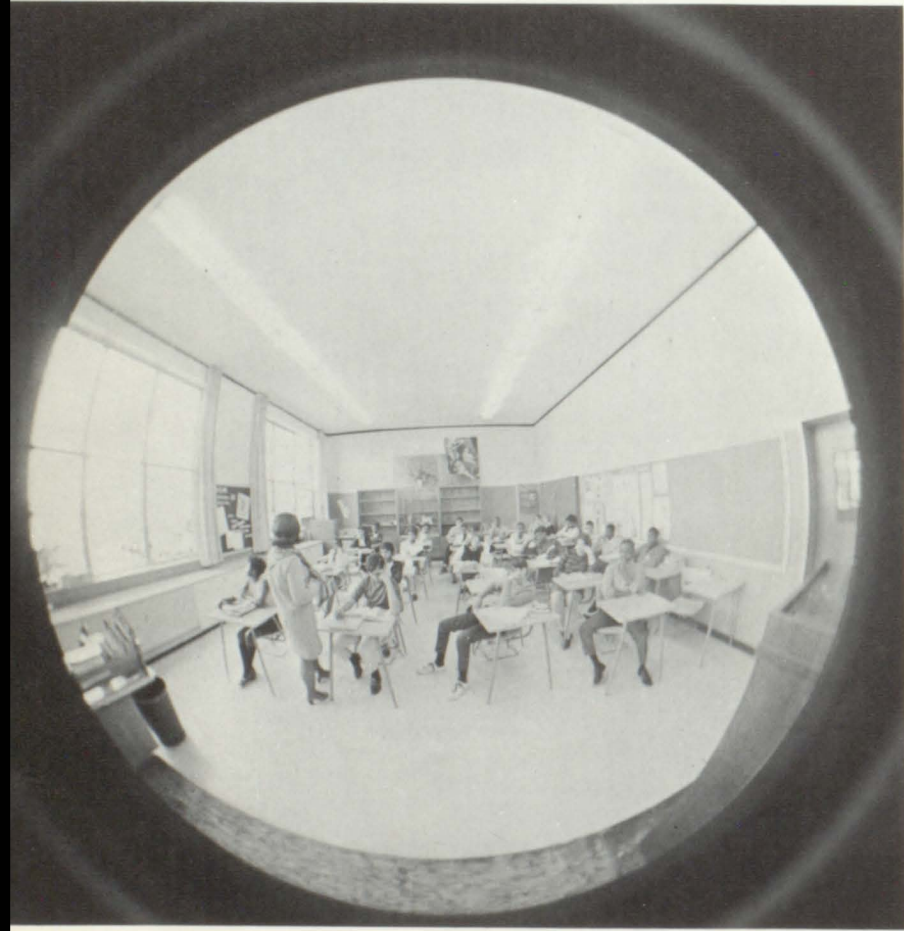

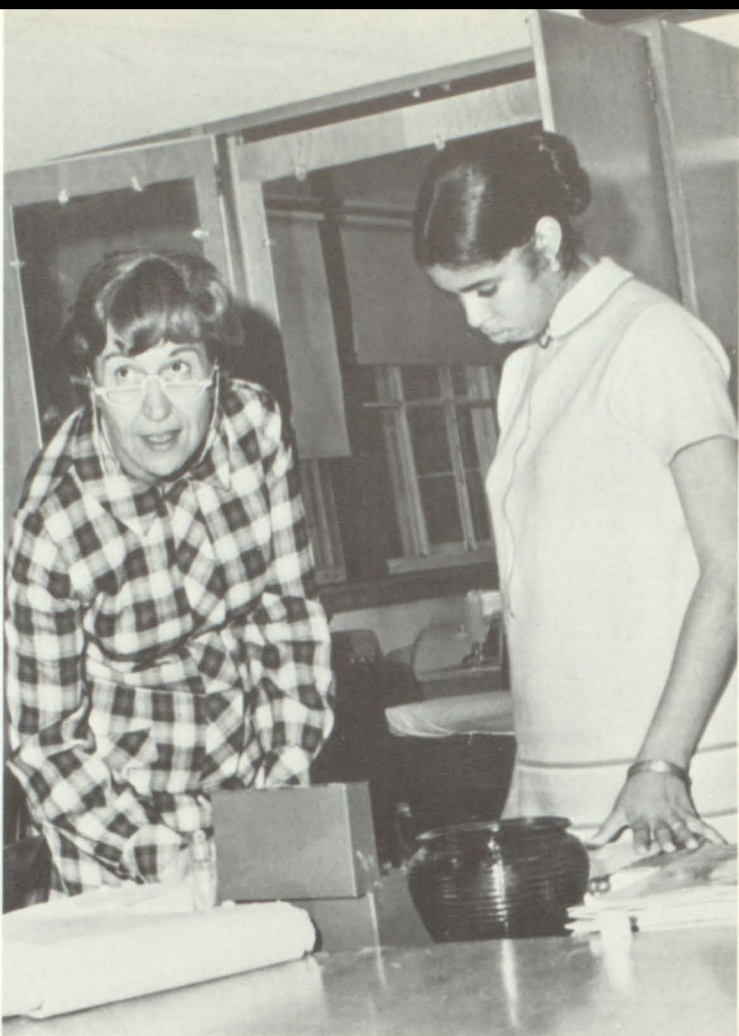

by ourselves . . .

by doing . . .

through guidance . . .

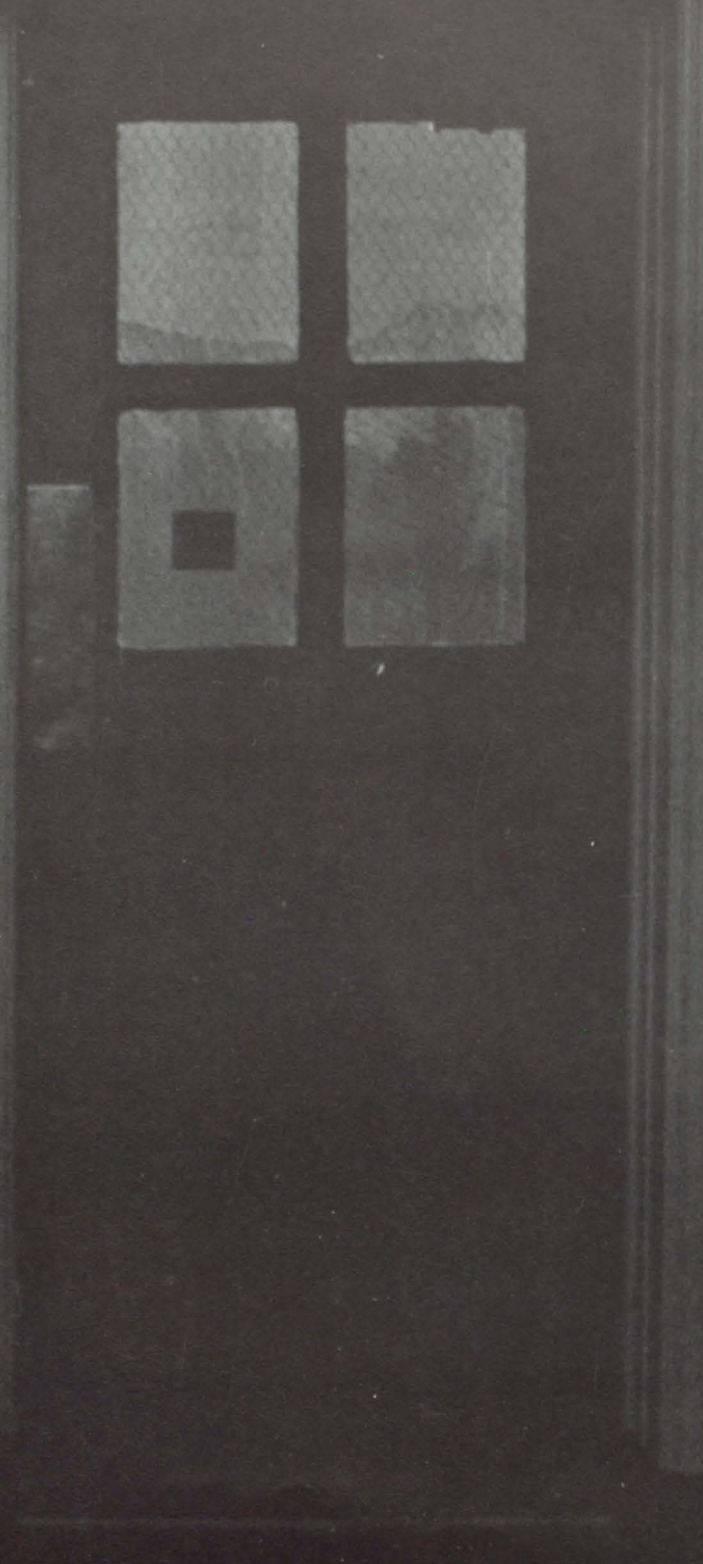

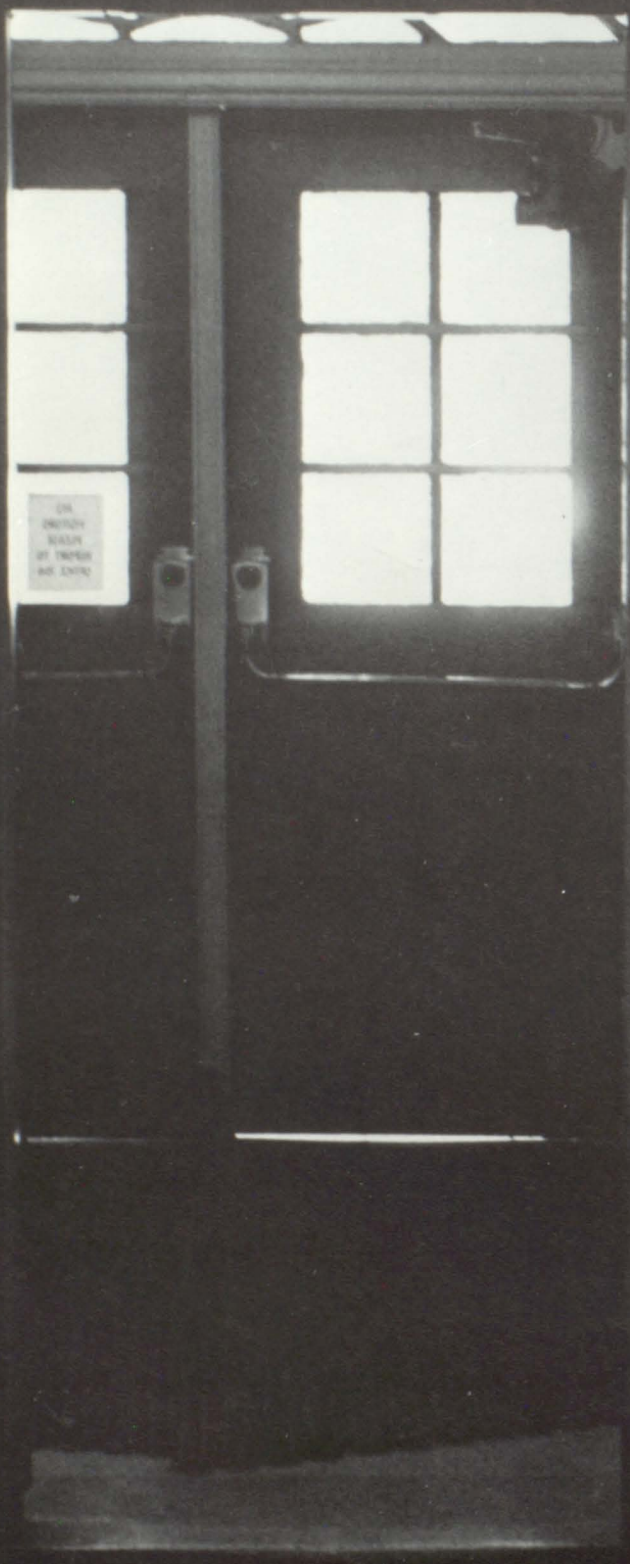

through enjoyment . . .

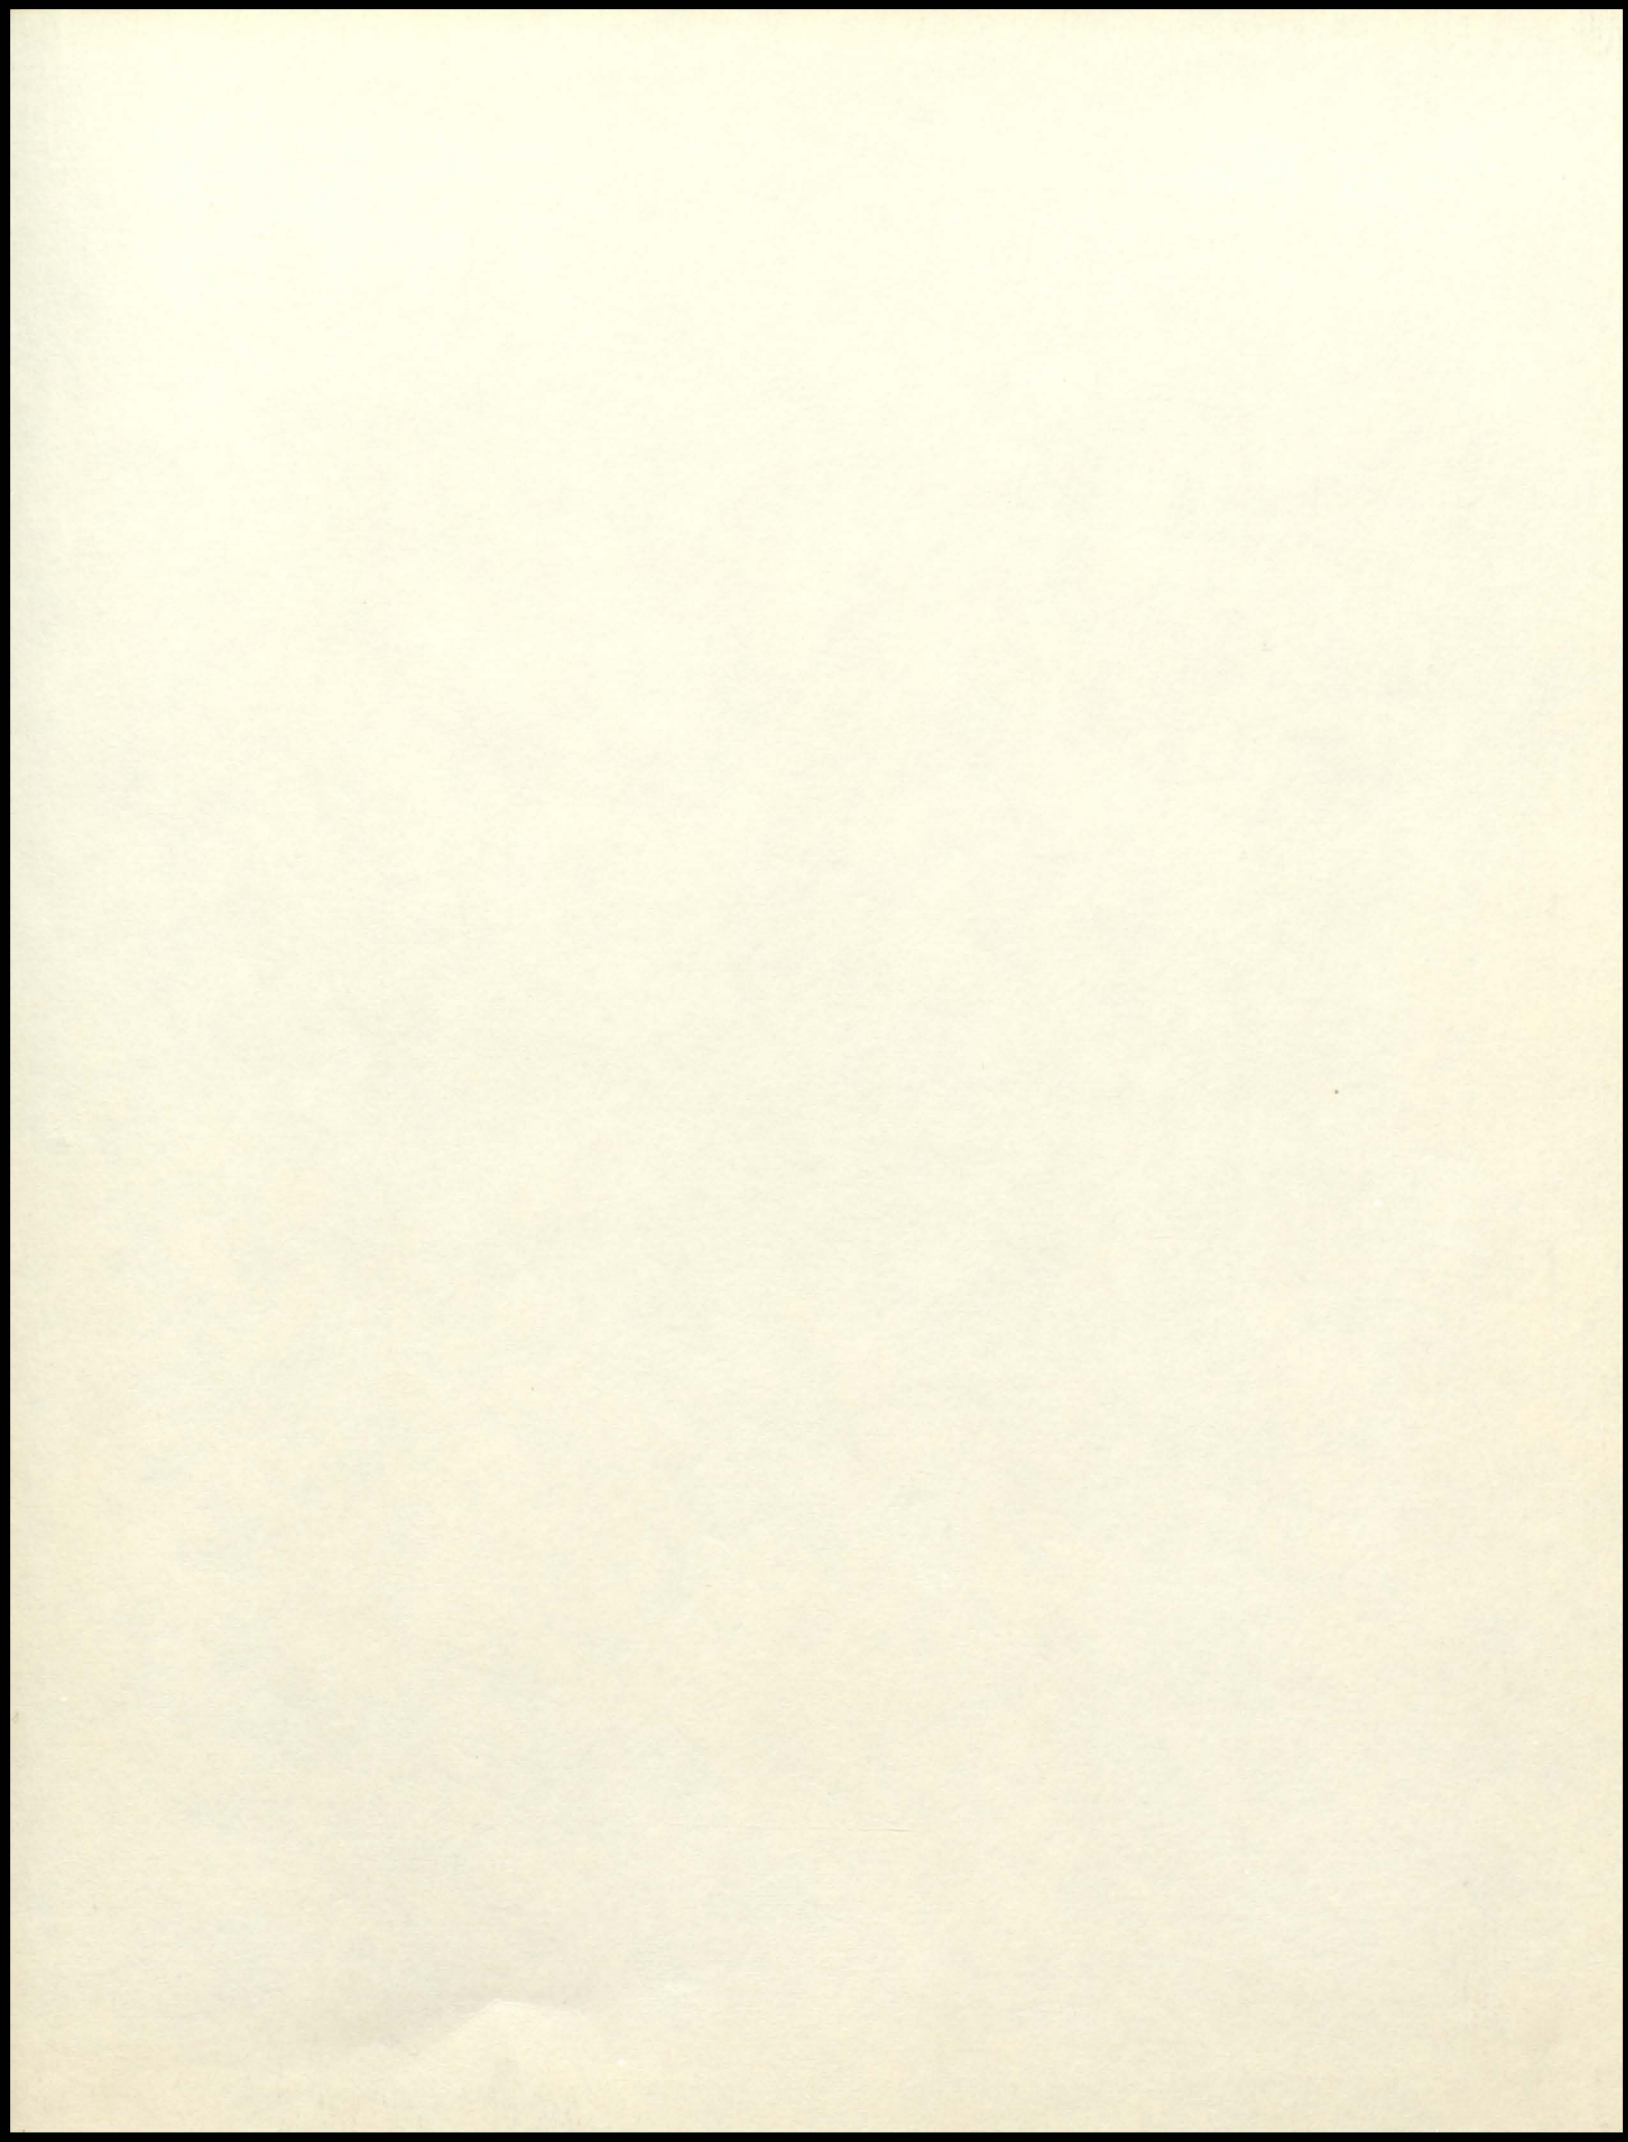

to grow in intellect,
in feeling . . .
in time.
